

Re-examining the Resurrection for the COVID-19 Generation April Series
LISTENING GUIDE

Chester's First Baptist Church * April 19, 2020 * Dr. Mike Fogerson, Spkr.

Review:

It's absolutely impossible to be a Christian & NOT believe in Jesus' literal, physical _____.

If Jesus died and stayed dead, then we die and stay dead and _____.

Fresh Content: 1 Corinthians 15. 20-49

The Feast of _____ (cf. Lev. 23.9-14; Num. 28.26-31) is a Jewish Feast that falls in the spring with the other feasts; Passover, Unleavened Bread, and Pentecost (AKA: Feast of Weeks).

We've just celebrated one resurrection (The resurrection of the _____) on Easter while we anticipate another future resurrection (The resurrection of the _____: AKA as the _____.) (cf., 1 Thess. 4.13-18)

We were not spiritually sick, ill, crippled: We were spiritually _____ when Jesus saved us. (cf. Eph. 2.1,5)

The resurrection of the redeemed & the resurrection of Jesus are _____.

If the Corinthians _____ in Christ's resurrection, they must also believe that they too will _____ a future resurrection.

You will have a new body that will be _____ as you, yet it will be a body made for _____.

If you are in _____, your resurrection body is on its way. If you are in _____, you are ineligible for a resurrection body.

Answers: resurrection, damned, first fruits, dead, redeemer, redeemed, rapture, interlaced, believed, experience, heaven, Christ, Adam.