

Thankful in Chaos

CHESTER FIRST BAPTIST'S
THROUGH OUR EYES - EP.3

Have you ever found inspiration in unexpected places? For me, it often comes in the form of a classic rock song - "Don't Know What You Got (Till It's Gone)" by Cinderella. It's a tune that I've come to know through fishing trips with my pa in the summer months (it's on our playlist). As Thanksgiving approaches, I find myself often thinking of this catchy tune.

Being at school has been a great experience for me I think it has made me a better man. It's taught me the virtue of gratitude. This gratitude, however, often fades in my life with business and the drowning in deadlines for school. In the midst of finals season, it's easy to lose sight of the important things. Cinderella's hit song reminds me to be content and grateful for where God has me right now. Even though I wonder what's going on back home, I must be intentional in being content, grateful, and thankful for where the Lord has me right now. I hope this is an encouragement to someone.

As Thanksgiving approaches, I encourage you to find times throughout the day and thank God. I certainly know I'll try too!

1 Thessalonians 5:16-17

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians 9:11

You will be enriched in everything for all liberality, which through is is producing thanksgiving to God.

Psalms 106:1

Praise the LORD! Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; For His mercy is everlasting.

Contributer:

Ridge Fogerson is in school at SEBTS in Wake Forest, NC. He is a Pastoral Ministry major.